

I am happy with the Wisconsin no call law as is. I do not have a phone so that I can be bothered at inopportune times by businesses that I am not doing business with. If these businesses insist on calling me, they will be removed from my list of businesses that I will do business with.

Thank you

Harold Wells